

SS8 – Primary Food Production in Australia - from the Inside Out

Presenter:

Veronique Droulez

Veronique Droulez is a member of the Dietitians Association of Australia and Nutrition Society of Australia. She has almost 20 years experience, mainly in public health and food industry, including the National Heart Foundation, PepsiCo Australia, Nutricia and the National Centre of Excellence for Functional Foods. Currently she is the Marketing Manager of Nutrition at Meat & Livestock Australia.

Malcolm Riley

Malcolm Riley works for Dairy Australia as Regulatory and Policy Manager- Nutrition, and based in Melbourne. He is an Accredited Practising Dietitian with a PhD in epidemiology and has worked in areas of indigenous health, injury prevention, micronutrient deficiency, chronic disease and dietary monitoring and surveillance.